

EIS Alumni Association

2017 EISAA HAIKU

Authors from EIS Classes 1975-2016 and the Epidemiology Monitor submitted 70 haiku. The 2017 favorites by popular vote are:

Acting Director's Haiku (from opening EIS session)	Amazing journey From twenty nine years ago Red tag to acting	Anne Schuchat (EIS 88)
1st place (& Group 1)	A mosquito bite A devastated mother Microcephaly	Peter Kilmarx (EIS 94)
2nd place	Hair thinning, eyes red, En dash, Em dash, or hyphen? Will they notice? Yes!	Wade Ivy, III (EIS 09)
3rd place	Stool, rectums, vomit For enteric pathogens I have swabbed them all	Vivian Leung (EIS 16)
Group 2	Numbers have meaning Each a story, a person Beyond statistics	Asher Rosinger (EIS 15)
Group 3 / tie	"Association" Be sure not to confuse this Word with "causation"	Aisha Dickerson (Epi Monitor entry)
Group 3 / tie	Confounded no more Perhaps association Reveals causation	Talia Malagon (Epi Monitor entry)
Group 4	Silent fall of tears Wasted grant and squandered youth P of point o six	Francois Theriault (Epi Monitor entry)
Group 5	EIS nears end Excitement turns to panic What do you mean, "freeze?!"	Wade Ivy, III (EIS 09)